TECHNICAL PROJECTS

Virtual Driven Oscillator Laboratory | Python, GitHub July-Aug 2026

- Built a Python-based virtual lab to model undamped, damped, and sinusoidally driven mass-spring oscillations
- Generated frequency-response data and resonance curves across multiple damping conditions and calculated quality factor
- Modeled after an in-class lab, I created graphs to visualize oscillation behavior, damping effects, and resonance curves across different system conditions, based off user-specified parameters

Sprint Training Advisor & Logging Tool | Python, GitHub June 2026

- Built a Python-based sprint training decision and logging tool that recommends workouts from a progressions-based schedule, modifies sessions based on soreness status, and records completed workouts in a CSV log

Nutcracker Design Project - Statics & Mechanical Design | GitHub Mar 2026

- Designed a functional nutcracker applying statics, moment equilibrium and mechanical advantage principles
- Documented design process, calculations, and final project materials in a GitHub repository
